Edward Bibby - He was born about 1894 at Caton, near Lancaster. On the 1901 census he is aged 7, living at Tunstead, Wormhill, Derbyshire with his parents, William and Mary Ann Bibby, and his siblings, John aged 15, William aged 13, Ann aged 11, Jane aged 9, Joseph aged 5 and May aged 1. The two youngest children were born at Great Rocks, Derbyshire.

In 1891 the family was living at Burton, near Kendal and, after a period living at Tunstead, they moved to Elton and lived at Oddo Cottages, as William was working at Oddo Farm as farm bailiff. Edward had already joined the army when the family moved to Elton.

Edward enlisted at Buxton and his residence at the time was given as Matlock. He was originally 1741 in the Derbyshire Yeomanry. He later became 242448 in the 6th Territorial Army Infantry Battalion, The Sherwood Foresters (Nottingham and Derbyshire Regiment). Before 1908 they were known as the 2nd Volunteer Battalion of The Sherwood Foresters. In 1914 reserve units were recruited as 'Home Units', the first of these being known as the 1/6th Battalion (see also John Bibby and Joseph Dale). The 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th Battalions were part of the 139th Brigade in the 46th (North Midland) Division.

Edward served in France and Flanders. During the opening days of March 1917 the Battalion was in action near Gommercourt and Kite Copse and 38 men were wounded. (Reference: 'Men of the High Peak - a history of the 1/6th Battalion The Sherwood Foresters' by Captain W.D. Jamieson, ISBN 09529648 6 4) - a collection of memories written in the 1920s.)

Edward died of wounds on the 11th March 1917, aged about 23 and is buried at Warlincourt Halte British Cemetery, Saulty, Pas de Calais. The site of this cemetery was previously used as a Casualty Clearing Station. Edward is also remembered on the war memorial at Litton, Derbyshire.

On the 8th April 1917 the 6th Battalion moved to billets in Angres and on the following day took the place of the 7th Battalion Northamptonshire Regiment in Lievin, 3 miles west of Lens, on the Aouchez river. Lievin, a once prosperous colliery village, had just been captured by the Canadians on the 14th April.

John was killed in action, aged 30, on the 19th April 1917 - his brother Edward had died of wounds on the 11th March the same year. John is buried in the Lievin Communal Cemetery Extension and is also remembered on the war memorial at Litton.

THIEPVAL MEMORIAL

John William Boam - born in Elton on 26th February 1893 and baptised at All Saints' Church, Elton on 21st May 1893, the son of William and Esther Elizabeth Boam (nee Johnson) who were married at All Saints on 9th July 1884. William was born about 1864 and Esther was born in Brassington/Kniveton about 1866.

Their other children (with approximate year of birth) were Samuel (1884), Emma (1886), Fred (1887), Sarah Jane (1889), Thomas Edwin (1891, died 9th July 1893) and Lenora Kate (1896).

On the 1891 census Esther is living in Town Street, Elton with her five children. William is lodging with a family in Buxton and is described as a general labourer. In 1901 Esther is living in West End and has three children at home, including John William, and also her mother. William is now a 'coal labourer, underground' lodging at 15 Duke Street, Staveley near Chesterfield.

John William Boam first went to school in Matlock Bath and transferred to Elton school, where he was a pupil from 1901 until 1906.

Twenty two years of age and single, Private Boam was employed in the agricultural industry before enlisting."

As Joseph is buried at Boulogne Eastern Cemetery it is likely that he was on his way back to the U.K. for hospital treatment.

Joseph Peter Marsden - Born in Birchover about 1898, the youngest son of Peter and Sarah Marsden of Elton. His father was born in Stannington, Sheffield about 1858 and his mother was born in Birchover/Stanton about 1859.

Joseph's siblings, all born in Birchover/Stanton, except Ann Elizabeth who was born in Elton, were Mary H. (b. 1882), Frederick (b. 1884), Lydia Marriott (b. 1886), Sarah A. (b. 1899), Sarah Jane (b. 1893), George (b. 1896) and Ann Elizabeth (b. 1900).

In the 1891 census the family is living at Stanton Hill Side, Stanton, and Peter is a gritstone cutter. In the 1901 census they are living at Ivy House Farm (then called Hungerhill Farm), Ivy Lane, Elton. Peter is now a farmer and Frederick is a gritstone labourer.

Joseph Peter, known as Peter, enlisted at Derby in the 1st Battalion of the Leicestershire Regiment and served in France and Flanders. He was killed in action near Basuel, France on October 23 1918, aged 21. The family received notification of his death a few days after the war ended. His younger sister, Ann Elizabeth, died one month later of influenza at the age of 18.

ARRAS MEMORIAL

Commemorated in perpetuity by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission

Joshua Smith - Born in Elton about 1878/79, the youngest child of John and Martha Smith of Moor Lane, both of whom were born in Elton. John was a joiner.

John and Martha's other children, all born in Elton, were George H. 1863, Samuel (baptised 24.09.1865), Cornelius (1871), John (1873), Joseph (1874), Martha (1877) and Mary Ellen (baptised 15.07.1880, died 17.07.1880)

Joshua appears with his family in the 1881 census, living in Moor Lane. In 1891 Joshua Smith lived with his widowed mother Martha in Moor Lane and was still at school. His older brothers Samuel and Cornelius were living at home. Martha kept a farm and was helped by Cornelius who was then aged 21. Joshua's sister, Martha, was 15 and still at school.

Some time between 1891 and 1901 the family moved to Aldwark, where they continued to farm. In 1901 Joshua's older brother Joseph, aged 26, sister Martha and himself were working on the farm. Martha, the mother died in 1908 and Martha the daughter died in 1912.

Joshua's home is recorded as being Matlock Bath when he enlisted at Bakewell. According to 'Soldiers Died in the Great War', Joshua was born in Hawick, Roxburgh - a mistake if we have got the right man. Men were often transferred from one regiment to another because of high casualties so it is possible that on joining a Scottish regiment he gave a Scottish birthplace, or it was just that someone made a mistake when completing his records. The Commonwealth War Graves Commission supplied us with details of five other casualties called Joshua Smith but none of the others appears to have any connection with Derbyshire.

Joshua was first 40379 in the South Staffordshire Regiment but at the time of his death he was Private 28594 in the 1st Battalion. King's Own Scottish Borderers. He served in France and Flanders and was killed in action on 13 April 1917. He is also remembered on the Arras memorial, Bay 6.

All the family were born in Elton except for Sarah, who was born in Winster. They moved from Moor Lane to Ivy Lane sometime between 1891 and 1901.

Rupert was a pupil at Elton school between 1899 and 1908.

He enlisted at Bakewell in the 1st Battalion Sherwood Foresters (Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment). He served in France and Flanders and was killed in action on 27th May 1918 aged 22. He is also remembered on the Soissons Memorial.

Clement Richard Goodwin was the son of Clement Richard and Mary Belfield Goodwin of Gratton Grange, Elton. He is stated to be a native of Wheston Hall (near the village of Wheston) near Tideswell and is commemorated on the Tideswell war memorial.

The 1901 census shows this family living at Bowling Green Farm, Nether Haddon, Bakewell and Clement junior was apparently born at Chelmorton about 1894. We don't know when his parents moved to Gratton or how long they were there.

He enlisted at York as 15424 in the 5th Reserve Cavalry Regiment. He later transferred to the 16th Battalion Royal Scots (Lothian Regiment) and served in France and Flanders. He died of wounds on the 28th January 1918 and is buried at Mory Abbey Military Cemetery.

George Stanley James Orrell is another war casualty who had connections with Elton but who is not named on the Elton War Memorial. He was born in Heanor, Derbyshire about 1896.

The following report appeared in the Derbyshire Times on Saturday 26th May 1917.

Former Elton Soldier Killed

News has been received this week that private George Orrell, Sherwood Foresters, was killed by a shell in France on May 15th. For several years Private Orrell was learning farming with his uncle, Mr Frank Staley of Pike Hall near Elton but shortly before enlisting about a year ago he removed to a farm at Shepley near Ilkeston. Aged 21 years, Private Orrell was the eldest son of Mr and Mrs J. Orrell, Thompson Street, Langley Mill. He was an enthusiastic musician and for some years was organist at St. John's church, Aldercar.

He enlisted at Ilkeston in the 15th Battalion Sherwood Foresters (Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire Regiment) and served in France and Flanders. He is remembered on the Thiepval Memorial on the Somme.

On the next page is a photograph of a war memorial in Elton that is now rarely noticed. It is a window on the east wall of the Old Reform Chapel on Main Street. The window is visible from the footpath between Chapel Croft and Ivy Lane.
